

Pas-a-Pas

Step by step we walk the mysterious path.

A bright night takes us one step closer to enlightenment.

Beware of what lies ahead, only few were meant to be its master.

*Let the stone be your guide
but beware of the unholy knight.
Only a lonely traveler will follow the path
and avoid the guardians wrath.
From the path you shall not stray
there truly is no other way.*
