

Salve Filius,

Thank you for your letter. You are always welcome to visit your old covenant. Your letter indicates that there are some things we should discuss. And your skills would be of some use as well.

I had no idea that you headed to Fontis Niger when you left with such haste.

I hope you will find the challenges that you are looking for. You can always find them here should the Provençal Tribunal prove to be too quiet for you.

Magus Gaius Marius Cicero